

SUPPLEMENTAL SECURITY INCOME (SSI) PROGRAM METHODOLOGY PROPERTY WORK SHEET CHILD

Name	Case number	Month
------	-------------	-------

STEP I

- A. There is no allocation of property from an ineligible parent(s) if one or both parents is public assistance (PA), other PA, or eligible for the SSI program.
- B. Determine net nonexempt property in accordance with Article 9.

STEP II

A. Ineligible Parental Allocation (Include Stepparents)

Only consider the net nonexempt property of the parent(s) in the home; do not consider the property of any other family members.

- 1. Parent(s)' net nonexempt property $ _____
- 2. Property limit for one person (if two parents, enter property limit for two persons) $ _____
- 3. Subtract line A.2. from line A.1. (enter 0 if negative). Total allocation: $ _____
- 4. Divide line A.3. by the number of SSI children in the home.

SSI child's share: $ _____

B. SSI Child's and Parent(s)' Resources

- 1. Child's own net nonexempt property (as determined under Article 9) $ _____
- 2. Enter child's share of property from parent(s) (line A.4.) $ _____
- 3. Add lines B.1. and B.2. $ _____
- 4. Enter the SSI property limit for one person $ _____
- 5. Is line B.3. less than or equal to line B.4.?
 - Yes, SSI property requirement met.
 - No, ineligible due to excess property. If more than one SSI child in the home, proceed to Section C.

C. More Than One SSI Child in the Home

- 1. Follow these steps if the child in Section B above is ineligible for any reason, e.g., attainment of age 18 or due to excess property because the parental allocation when combined with the SSI child's own net nonexempt property exceeds the SSI property limit for one person.
- 2. Take the amount of property deemed from the parent(s) (line A.3.) and redivide it among the remaining number of SSI children in the home (line A.4.).
- 3. Repeat Section B for each of the remaining SSI children in the home to determine if the combined amount of the child's share of parental net nonexempt property and the child's own net nonexempt property (line B.3.) is within the allowable SSI property limit (line B.4.).

Eligibility Worker signature	Worker number	Date
------------------------------	---------------	------