

MEDI-CAL ELIGIBILITY DIVISION

The Medi-Cal Eligibility Division oversees Medi-Cal eligibility determinations for Title XIX and XXI, and may make eligibility determinations for the Breast and Cervical Cancer Treatment (BCCTP) and Inmate Programs. The oversight of Medi-Cal eligibility determinations includes case review. See the description of the different branches within the Medi-Cal Eligibility Division.

Policy Development Branch	Policy Operations Branch	Program Review Branch
The Policy Development Branch oversees the majority of the Medi-Cal eligibility determination policy areas related to the administration of the Title XIX and Title XXI Medi-Cal and Medi-Cal Children's Health Insurance Program performed at the county level. In addition, the Policy Development Branch recently became the lead branch on efforts related to and the administration of the State Children's Health Insurance Program with the acquisition of the Healthy Family Program into the Department.	The Policy Operations Branch oversees a limited number of policy areas for Medi-Cal eligibility determinations performed at the county level. Additionally, the Policy Operations Branch houses five units involved in performing Medi-Cal eligibility determinations for BCCTP and Inmate eligibility. Three units determine eligibility for BCCTP and two units determine eligibility for inmates. The level of staff making these eligibility determinations is analyst level.	The Program Review Branch performs periodic reviews of county Medi-Cal eligibility determinations. Oversees allocations to counties for performing Medi-Cal eligibility determinations.